PLANTER'S HOTEL.

(FORMERLY KNOWN AS GLOVER'S.)
IN EDGEFIELD VILLAGE.

THE SUBSCRIBER having purchased the above establishment, and been at much expense in fitting it up for the accommodation of Families, and transient Boarders; would now call public attention to it.

His Hotel is new, and spacious, situate near the Court House, in a very airy situation, and his Table he flatters himself will bear a comparison with any one found in an inland town. For health, the village is notorious; and he has made such arrangements as he feels confident will give satisfaction to Families that may pay him a visit during the Summer season. The village is surrounded by numerous Springs of excellent water.

His Stables are under the superintendence of a careful Hostler, and are large and airy.
